Tonite at the home of R Raymond Green MD. the Sup of Wasatch County met to hear the distinguished proffessor of history of BYU Dr Ted J Warner. He spoke in the first person of Dominguez. and told the story of him and Escalante from Santa Fe NM up thru Colorado, and into Utah, thru Vernal, Uintah Basin and up Deep Creek into Wasatch County. They then traveled down Diamond Fork Canyon into Spanish Fork Canyon into Utah Valley to the south end of Utah Lake. Thence they went south and east due to oncoming winter; across the Colorado River at the Crossing of the Fathers, to the Zuni Indian Village, and then to Santa Fe. They were gone about 6 months and had traveled about 2000 miles.

The story was well done by Dr Warner and all in attendance were well pleased as they heard him.

SUP Meeting Held

11-26-86

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 18, a special meeting of the Son's of Utah Pioneers was held at the home of Dr. R. Raymond Green in Heber City.

Dr. Ted Warner, B.Y.U. historian, portrayed Fray Francisco Atanasio Dominguez. Dr. Warner spoke in the first person as Father Dominguez who, along with Fray Francisco Silvestre Velez de Escalante, traveled through a portion of the valley of Timpanogos. The year was 1776.

Dr. Warner talked about the journey and answered questions S.U.P. members had regarding the Dominguez and Escalante expedition.

A book entitled, "Dominguez-Escalante Journal — Their Expedition Through Colorado, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico in 1776," is available for purchase.

For further information regarding the Dominguez-Escalante expedition, or if you would like to know more about the Son's of Utah Pioneers organization, please contact Dr. R. Raymond Green at 654-1822, mornings only.
